Important Information about Your Appeal Rights

What if I need help understanding this denial? Contact us at the toll-free number on your ID Card if you need assistance understanding this notice or our decision to deny you a service or coverage.

What if I don't agree with this decision? You have a right to appeal any decision not to provide or pay for an item or service (in whole or in part).

How do I file an appeal? Complete the bottom of this page, make a copy, and send this document to the address at the bottom of this page. See also the "Other resources to help you" section of this form for assistance filing a request for an appeal.

What if my situation is urgent? If your situation meets the definition of urgent under the law, your review will generally be conducted within 72 hours. Generally, an urgent situation is one in which your health may be in serious jeopardy or, in the opinion of your physician, you may experience pain that cannot be adequately controlled while you wait for a decision on your appeal. If you believe your situation is urgent, you may request an expedited appeal by following these instructions and answering "yes" to the urgent appeal question below.

Who may file an appeal? You or someone you name to act for you (your authorized representative) may file an appeal. Call our office to request or download the Authorization Form from the Resource section of your online account.

Can I provide additional information about my claim? Yes, you may supply additional information by attaching it to your Appeal Filing Form.

Can I request copies of information relevant to my claim? Yes, you may request copies (free of charge). If you think a coding error may have caused this claim to be denied, you have the right to have billing and diagnosis codes sent to you, as well. You can request copies of this information by contacting us at the toll-free number on your ID Card.

What happens next? If you appeal, we will review our decision and provide you with a written determination. If we continue to deny the payment, coverage, or service requested or you do not receive a timely decision, you may be able to request an external review of your claim by an independent third party, who will review the denial and issue a final decision.

Other resources to help you: For questions about your rights, this notice, or for assistance, you can contact: the Employee Benefits Security Administration at 1-866-444-EBSA (3272).
